

GRACE HONOR bushman lundquist

GRACE HONOR BUSHMAN, daughter of CHARLOTTE TURLEY and JACOB BUSHMAN, was born June 15, 1873 in Lehi, Utah. She married EMANUEL RICHARD LUNDQUIST at Thistle, Utah on Jan. 6, 1892 and they were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple on June 24, 1897. EMANUEL's parents were Carl Gustaf and Carolina Erickson Lundquist.

My father, EMANUEL, built the home on Fifth Avenue in Salt Lake City where all of us children were born. He ran a grocery store, which was attached to the home. Our father and mother were very religious, and we were all raised in the Church and taught the principles of the Gospel. We had many happy times in this home. Our mother raised chickens to supplement the family income and gave us the opportunities of music and cultural refinement. She had a remarkable gift of sewing and did fine needlework. She died at an early age of 38 from pneumonia. Our parents both worked in the Church and were faithful in every calling.
